

How the program works.

1. The program runs for app. 26 weeks (6 months)
2. Once enrolment is completed learners are put into groups of 5. Learners should be from the same school.
3. Before the program begins learners are paired with a group facilitator
 - a. The facilitators role is to guide the learners through a series of tasks and to ensure that learners stay on par with the demands of the program.
 - b. Generally, the facilitator provides support to the learners and assist where they are needed. However they are NOT to drive the process.
 - c. Facilitator will likely to be a qualified teacher who has experience in working with age appropriate learners – usually a subject specialist in but not exclusive to Business studies. (This will be an advantage)
4. Learners will attend a launch event.
 - a. At the launch event learners will be guided through the following;
 - i. BUILD IN A BOX Framework
 - ii. Expectations around conduct and behaviour
 - iii. Tasks and milestones
 - iv. Scope and parameters of
5. Once the program commences, learners will engage in a series of milestone activities that they will have to fulfil
6. At the halfway mark learners will attend a plenary session where they are going to report on their progress.
7. At this point, learners will additionally be paired with a mentor (from the business community) who will be assist them further in being able to monetise and sell their solution.
 - a. The role of Mentor will be slightly different from that of a facilitator. The mentor will be someone who is well versed in a the business space. Someone who has experience in entrepreneurship, who will contribute in the manner that learners think through how the learners can generate income from their designed solution.
 - b. The mentor and facilitator will work with the group of learners until the end of the program.
8. Towards the end the program learners will be preparing to pitch their idea at the ideas festival.
 - a. They will be judged by a panel of experts from different fields within the business community.
 - b. The winners will receive funding to pursue their business even further and to expand on their impact.

Addendum 1

